

Pastoral Leadership Opportunity

Emmanuel Seventh-day Adventist Church – Mobile, Alabama

Emmanuel Seventh-day Adventist Church in Mobile, Alabama, is a well-established congregation of approximately 450 members seeking a pastor with strong leadership, preaching, and administrative gifts to guide the church into its next season of ministry.

About the Church

The congregation has a rich history and a committed base of ministry leaders eager to grow spiritually and expand the church's impact—particularly among youth, young adults, and families. Emmanuel is prayerfully seeking a pastor who can provide clear vision, effective coordination, and collaborative leadership to support and strengthen existing ministries and help the church move forward with renewed purpose.

Ministry Focus

Key areas of focus include:

- Spiritual growth and discipleship
- Expansion of youth and family ministries
- Continued enhancement of the worship experience
- Strengthening and revitalizing community outreach efforts

Pastoral Profile

While age is not a determining factor, the church would welcome a pastor whose life experience and ministry approach resonate with young adults. Demonstrated gifts in preaching, leadership, and engaging youth and young adults are essential.

This position is well suited for a pastor who values teamwork, possesses strong organizational skills, and is passionate about leading a congregation toward meaningful growth, relevance, and faithful service.

Application Process

If you are interested in being considered for this opportunity, please submit a cover letter, résumé, and a video-recorded sermon to Ministerial Director Elder Kennedy Luckett at kluckett@cc-sda.org.
