

Pastoral Leadership Opportunity

New Heights Seventh-Day Adventist Church – Jackson

New Heights Seventh-Day Adventist Church is seeking a dynamic, visionary pastor to lead the congregation into its next season of Spirit-led, mission-driven ministry.

About the Church

New Heights is a congregation of approximately 200 members, with an average weekly worship attendance of 60. The church is known for its rich gospel choir tradition and an upbeat worship experience. The membership reflects a strong, educated, professional demographic, with many members connected to the local academic community. As a Spirit-led, mission-driven church within the South Central Conference, New Heights is intentionally moving toward a more progressive, non-traditional ministry model.

Ministry Focus

The congregation is committed to its mission of showing Life-Changing Compassion, making Life-Changing Connections, and making Life-Changing Contributions, with a particular emphasis on reaching youth and young adults.

Pastoral Profile

The ideal candidate will be:

- Energetic, motivational, and visionary
- Open to change and skilled in leading congregational transition
- Approachable and relational, able to connect across generations
- A collaborative leader with the ability to lead leaders
- Evangelistically minded and mission-focused
- Grounded in principle with strong pastoral presence
- A clear, compelling, and biblically sound preacher

Core Competencies

- Youth and young adult ministry
- Preaching and teaching
- Administration and leadership

Additional Information

The congregation is open to female pastoral leadership.

Application Process
